

1

We take turns playing clockwise. In turn, draw a card and read it out loud.

2

We are Drivers on the Circuit, a group of dangerous races, at the controls of fast vehicles. The text about us will always be masculine, but we can be the kind we want.

3

The Circuit moves from race to race, and we all live together in this mobile caravan during the season.

4

The Champion is undefeated this season. She is the favourite to win the Grand Rapids Final, the most prestigious, famous and coveted race of the season.

5

We are all participating in this race. The Champion has identified us as her main competitors. We don't know yet, but she will win it.

6

The race is on. The race is our present, but the past reminds us of us.

7

Let's define together the type of universe and races in which we evolve. Stock Cars, NASCAR, Pod Races, Magicians' Courses, Street Races, On a bike in the middle of traffic...

8

Let's define together the identity of the Champion. The Champion can be a Champion. Names: Swallow, Chaos, Cyber, Wally Street, Lucky Charm, Berserk, Succubus, Ghost...

9

When the "Instructions" cards are finished, we will continue with the "Questions" cards. Everyone will read the question on the drawn card and answer it.

10

The other players can intervene, ask questions, make suggestions. They cannot answer for the one who reads the card, who keeps the last word.

11

Let's take the X card and place it in the center of the table, where it is accessible to all of us.

12

If one of us does not want to include an answer or a card in the story, he indicates it by touching the X card. The content concerned is then removed from the game.

13

When a card is removed in this way, the player who was supposed to play it can draw a new one. You can use the X card on your own card.

14

It is possible to pass a card to another player, because the card does not match our character, or because it is more suitable for another character. We can pass a card that has been passed to us.

15

When a card mentions "Someone here" or "Who here", it refers to another player's character.

16

We play until the "Finish Line" card is drawn. Everyone takes turns answering them.

17

We are ready to play. We can take a short break, then the player who wishes to do so throws himself and draws the first "Questions" card.

You had a one-night stand with the Champion. What weakness did you discover in her?

Who did you come to grips with here? Why? Why?

Between races, you had a bad meeting. Who here helped you get out of it?

Who did you share a drink with here after each race? Why didn't you do it after the last race?

The Champion caught you doing something illegal in the last race. What did she say or do?

The Champion came to see you after your first race. Why? Why? What did she say to you?

Who do you travel with here between races?

Who did you have a running collision with here? What were the consequences?

How long has it been since you've been home?

What did you sacrifice to join the Circuit?

Who here was the first to congratulate you on your first podium?

A relative of yours died on the Circuit. How did you react? How do you live it?

At the beginning of your career, an article / comment hurt you. Tell me about it.

Who here has poached a member of your entourage?

You traveled with one of your idols. How was it to see it without varnish?

What were you forced to do for a sponsor?

You just lost places by avoiding a clash with someone here. Why didn't you go to the contact?

Your indicators / your team ask you to make a stop to fix something. Why do you ignore them?

You've taken the lead in the race. The Champion sticks you on the train, in a cat and mouse game. What do you feel?

Just before a dangerous quarrel, a painful memory comes up. Tell us how you feel.

After a collision, a lucky charm in your cabin breaks. How do you react?

You pass by a competitor's wreck. Why are you stopping?

The race is neutralized for a few minutes. You take this opportunity to exchange a few words with someone here. Play this discussion.

An event disrupts the race. How is he in your favor?

Who are you allying with here to overtake another competitor? Tell your story. Which one of you benefits the most?

Elbow to shoulder with the Champion, what do you notice about her?

One day, the Champion came to inspect your vehicle in silence, without saying a word to you. How did you react?

Who here started on the Circuit at the same time as you? How was your early career very different?

Who here do you keep a close eye on during the race? Why? Why?

A relative of yours is present at the edge of the track. Who? Who? What are you doing special to greet him/her?

The Champion is sending you a message in the middle of the race. What is its content? Do you answer it?

Why did someone close to you turn his back on you when you joined the Circuit?

You had a serious accident on the track. Who here helped you in your recovery?

You have incurred debts with influential and dangerous people. They asked you to do something to cancel your debt. What? What? The opportunity is now before you. Do you take it?

Just before a dangerous quarrel, a happy memory comes up. How do you narrowly avoid the accident by getting back?

Which of your relatives are in the Champion's entourage? How do you live it?

Who did you know here before you joined the Circuit? How did your relationship change after that?

You effortlessly double the Champion. Does that give you confidence for the rest of the race?

Before the race, someone here revealed one of his weaknesses to you. You have the opportunity to use this revelation right now. Do you take it?

You lost someone close to you. Who here has supported you in this difficult time?

Information leaked in the press about the backstage of the Circuit. Who here do you suspect and why?

Why do you disclose to the press indiscretions about the backstage of the Circuit?

Who are you in love with here? Who knows about this?

You broke sugar on the Champion's back in an interview. How did she react?

The Champion wins the race. How do you end the race? Are you going to congratulate the Champion? What do you do next?